The Cavalry Journal

PUBLISHED MONTHLY BY

THE UNITED STATES CAVALRY ASSOCIATION

MAJOR OLIVER L. HAINES, Cavalry, Editor

Volume XXXX JANUARY, 1931 Number 162

Contents

General Douglas MacArthur ..... Frontispiece

Cavalry Packs and Marches 5
Colonel Albert E. Phillips, Cavalry

The Nicaragua Canal Survey 12
Lieutenant Colonel Dan I. Sultan, Corps of Engineers

Industry and National Defense 17
Major General George Van Horn Moseley, U.S.A.

Defense Against Tanks 20
Lieutenant Colonel K. B. Edmunds, Cavalry

The College Trained Army 24
Lieutenant Ralph A. Palmer, 338th Infantry

Success in War 26
Major George S. Patton, Jr., Cavalry

Border Cavalry Stations 31

The Gallop as a Conditioning Gait 36
Department of Horsemanship, The Cavalry School

The Philippines 38
Major Vicente Lim, 45th Infantry (P. S.)

Equitation and Sports in European Schools 42
Major Norman E. Fiske, Cavalry

Co-Ordination of the Attack 44
Major General J. F. C. Fuller, British Army

The National Guard 47
Colonel S. C. Vestal, Coast Artillery Corps

Sports 51

Current Topics 53
The Cavalry Journal Becomes a Monthly—General Douglas MacArthur—Notice of Annual Meeting

Professional Notes and Discussion 54
Method for Representing Fire in Maneuvers—Semi-Automatic Shoulder Rifles—Rating Sheet for Polo Players

Organization Activities 56

Book Reviews 61

Publishing Office: Harrisburg, Pa.

Editorial Office: 1624 H St., Washington, D. C.

Advertising Office: 1624 H St., Washington, D. C.

Application pending for entry as second-class mail matter at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, under the Act of March 3, 1879. For mailing at special rate of postage provided in Section 412, Act of October 3, 1917.

$2.50 per year, foreign postage 25c additional. Single copy: 35c

GENERAL DOUGLAS MacARTHUR

The CAVALRY JOURNAL

PUBLISHED MONTHLY BY

THE UNITED STATES CAVALRY ASSOCIATION

MAJOR OLIVER L. HAINES, Cavalry, Editor

Volume XXXX | FEBRUARY, 1931 | Number 163

Contents

107th Cavalry as Escort to President Hoover, Cleveland, Ohio, October 2, 1930 ..... Frontispiece

Conditioning Polo Ponies 5
Captain L. K. Truscott, Jr., Cavalry

New Developments in Warfare 8
General C. P. Summerall

Cavalry Packs and Marches (II) 11
Colonel Albert E. Phillips, Cavalry

Notes on Marksmanship 16
Lieutenant E. E. Pheris, Jr., 45th Infantry

Southern Grasslands International Steeplechase 19
Lieutenant R. E. Ireland, 6th Cavalry

Hawaii Nei 22
Lieutenant G. A. Hadsell, Coast Artillery Corps

Industry and National Defence (II) 25
Major General George Van Horn Moseley

Practical Peace-Time Leadership 27
Major O. W. Griswold, Infantry

Antiaircraft Instruction for Cavalry Gunners 30
Captain Thomas J. Heavey, 2nd Cavalry

Reservist Field Training 32
Lieutenant Colonel H. E. Finch, Corps of Engineers

The 1930 Leadership Test 36
Major Clark P. Chandler, 1st Cavalry Brigade

The British Army Exercises of 1930 39
Captain B. H. Liddell Hart

The National Guard Recruiting Problem 45
Lieutenant Wilbur H. Rose, Infantry, West Virginia N. G. Reserve.

Current Events Overseas 47
Edited by Lieutenant Colonel Herman Beukema, Professor of Economics, Government and History, U. S. M. A.

Sports 51

Current Topics 55
The Basic Cavalry Manual—No Change in Uniform Contemplated—The 6th Cavalry Visits Nashville—Laced Boots to be Issued.

Professional Notes and Discussion 56
The 1000″ Record Machine Gun Target

Organization Activities 57

Book Reviews 60

Publishing Office: Cameron and Kelker Sts., Harrisburg, Pa.

Editorial Office: 1624 H St., Washington, D. C.

Advertising Office: 1624 H St., Washington, D. C.

Entered as second class matter at Harrisburg, Pa., January 22, 1931, under the Act of March 3, 1879. For mailing at Special Rate of Postage Provided in Section 412, Act of October 3, 1917.

$2.50 per year, foreign postage 25c additional. Single copy: 35c

107th CAVALRY AS ESCORT TO PRESIDENT HERBERT HOOVER, CLEVELAND, OHIO, OCT. 2nd, 1930.

107th CAVALRY AS ESCORT TO PRESIDENT HERBERT HOOVER, CLEVELAND, OHIO, OCT. 2nd, 1930.

The CAVALRY JOURNAL

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY BY

THE UNITED STATES CAVALRY ASSOCIATION

MAJOR OLIVER L. HAINES, Cavalry, Editor

Volume XXXX MARCH-APRIL, 1931 Number 164

Contents

Weapons of the Modern Cavalry Troop .....Frontispiece

Cavalry Now and to Come 5
Major A. D. Surles, 3d Cavalry

Preparing Horses for Competition 7
Brigadier General Walter C. Short

Indoor Instruction in Indirect Laying, Browning Machine Guns 11
First Lieutenant W. H. Schaefer

The Modern Pentathlon 13
Major General Guy V. Henry

Some Hints for Judging Hunters 17
Lieutenant Colonel C. L. Scott, Cavalry

Industry and National Defense (III) 21
Major General George Van Horn Moseley

American Troops in China-Their Mission 24
Captain Jesse D. Cope, 65th Inf.

Conditioning Polo Ponies (II) 29
Captain L. K. Truscott, Jr., Cavalry

Militarist of Pacifist? 32
Lieutenant Colonel John W. Lang, Infantry

Some Experiences and Impressions of a 2nd Lieutenant of Cavalry in the Santiago Campaign 37
Brigadier General S. D. Rockenbach

The Mexican Army in the Chihuahua Sector 43
Lieutenant W. P. Withers, 1st Cavalry

Pan Americanism, its Origin and Development 45
Professor A. Curtis Wilgus, George Washington University

The Cost of the National Guard 47
Colonel William H. Waldron

Current Events Overseas 50
Edited by Lieutenant Colonel Herman Beukema, Professor of Economics, Government and History, U. S. M. A.

Sports 54

Professional Notes and Discussion 56
System for Determining Basic Allowances-Notes on Development Work.

Current Topics 58
The Cavalry Journal to Become Bi-Monthly—Minutes of the Annual Meeting of the Cavalry Association.

Organization Activities 61

Book Reviews 63

Publishing Office:
Cameron and Kelker Sts.,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Editorial Office:
1624 H St., Washington, D. C.

Entered as second class matter at Harrisburg, Pa., January 22, 1931, under the Act of March 3, 1879. For mailing at Special Rate of Postage Provided in Section 412, Act of October 3, 1917.

$2.50 per year, foreign postage 50c additional. Single copy: 50c

GENERAL PERSHING'S

"My Experiences in the World War"

Will Be Ready Late in April

The Only Complete, Finally Revised Story

Two Volumes Lavishly Illustrated

Regular Edition - - - - - - - - $10.00

Usual Member's Discount

BE SURE OF A FIRST EDITION BY ORDERING YOUR SET IN ADVANCE

Only Limited Supply of First Edition Available

The U. S. Cavalry Association

1624 H Street, N. W. Washington, D. C.

NO PAID ADVERTISING IS ACCEPTED FOR THE CAVALRY JOURNAL

The Cavalry Journal

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY BY

THE UNITED STATES CAVALRY ASSOCIATION

MAJOR OLIVER L. HAINES, Cavalry, Editor

Volume XL | MAY-JUNE, 1931 | Number 165

Contents

Varied Scenes at the 1st Cavalry Division Maneuvers ..... Frontispiece

Mechanized Force Becomes Cavalry 5

The Mechanized Force, Its Organization and Present Equipment 7
Captain Arthur Wilson, Field Artillery

Steeplechasing and Point-to-Point Racing 11
Captain Marion Carson, 9th Cavalry

Military Instruction Films 14
Captain Alonzo P. Fox, (Infantry) Signal Corps

Training A Cavalry Regiment in Teamwork 17
Colonel Walter S. Grant, 13th Cavalry

Antiaircraft Terminology 27
First Lieutenant Joseph I. Greene, 24th Infantry

Sport With the Saber 31
Captain G. B. Guenther, Cavalry

Industry and National Defense (IV) 32
Major General George Van Horn Moseley, U. S. A.

Cavalry in European Armies 35
Colonel Mauriz Wiktorin, Austrian Army

A Long March to Battle 38
Colonel M. B. Stokes, G. S. C.

Organization and Strength of National Guard ... 40
Colonel William H. Waldron, Executive Officer, Militia Bureau

The Officers' Reserve Corps 44
Major L. L. Stuart, C. A. C.

Events Overseas 48
Lieut. Col. Herman Beukema, Professor, U. S. Military Academy

Sports 52

Professional Notes and Discussion 54
Inactive Duty Training—Notes from the Cavalry Board.

Current Topics 56
First Cavalry Division Maneuvers—26th Cavalry in the 1931 Maneuvers—British Maneuvers, Winter 1931—The Cavalry Rifle Team—Change in Duration of Courses—An Outstanding Cavalry Troop.

Organization Activities 59

Book Reviews 62

Publishing Office:
Cameron and Kelker Sts.,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Editorial Office:
1624 H St., Washington, D. C.

Entered as second class matter at Harrisburg, Pa., January 22, 1931, under the Act of March 3, 1879. For mailing at Special Rate of Postage Provided in Section 412, Act of October 3, 1917.

$2.50 per year, foreign postage 50c additional. Single copy: 50c

Was Grant an Accident?
Or Was he a Self-Made Success?

Col. A. L. Conger, U. S. A., points the answer in his new book

The Rise of U. S. Grant

In answering the question of whether his honors were really earned or were due to chance, General Grant has been made to tell his story in his own words, as he recorded it in reports and battlefield messages. And in the process Col. Conger brilliantly analyzes much of the strategy of the Civil War.

A NEW PICTURE OF THE SOLDIER GRANT

Well Mapped and Illustrated

Price $5.00, Postpaid

The U. S. Cavalry Association
1624 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

THE REMINISCENCES OF A MARINE

by

Maj.-Gen. John A. Lejeune

Formerly Commandant, U. S. Marine Corps

Profusely Illustrated

The military student will find of incalculable value, the chapters dealing with the battles of ST. MIHIEL, BLANC MONT RIDGE and the MEUSE-ARGONNE, the march into Germany and the occupation of the Rhineland.

A Stirring Autobiography of a Fighting Man, Interestingly Told

Price $4.15, Postpaid

The U. S. Cavalry Association
1624 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Warfare

A Study of Military Methods From the Earliest Times

by

Col. O. L. Spaulding, Capt. H. Nickerson and Col. J. W. Wright

A comprehensive and scholarly study of wars and battles from earliest times through Frederick the Great.

From early oriental wars to the campaigns of the eighteenth century the decisive battles of history are interestingly described and analyzed for their military significance and results.

Fascinating reading and helpful knowledge.

600 pages, with maps, bound in cloth.

This is a Limited Edition

Price $4.00, Postpaid

The U. S. Cavalry Association
1624 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

The Old Army Memories

by

Maj.-Gen. James Parker
U. S. A.
Medal of Honor, D. S. M.

Profusely Illustrated

The "NEW ARMY" has in THE OLD ARMY an interesting, authentic story of those thrilling days of which they have heard so often—days of hardship, privation and danger.

You OLDSTERS who lived in the days of the Dougherty Wagon and the Buckboard will find THE OLD ARMY a vivid picture of the days you love to think and talk about.

Price $4.15, Postpaid

The U. S. Cavalry Association
1624 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

NO PAID ADVERTISING IS ACCEPTED FOR THE CAVALRY JOURNAL

The CAVALRY JOURNAL

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY BY

THE UNITED STATES CAVALRY ASSOCIATION

LIEUTENANT COLONEL GEORGE M. RUSSELL, Cavalry, Editor

Volume XL | JULY-AUGUST, 1931 | Number 166

Contents

In the Field, 1st Cavalry Division ..... Frontispiece

With the Mechanized Force on Maneuvers 5
Captain Arthur R. Wilson, Field Artillery

Conditioning Horses 10
Captain William H. Dean, Veterinary Corps

Logic 12
From British Cavalry Journal

Chasing the "Transvaal Wolf" 14
Lieut. Col. William W. Edwards, Cavalry

The Military Situation in Central Europe 17
Lieut. General Constantin von Altrock, German Army

North of Sixty-Three 20
Frances Stuart Kobbe

The Development of War Department Organization and Plans for Industrial Mobilization 25
1st Lieut. H. L. Bishop, Jr., Corps of Engineers

A Cavalry March 29
Commander Holloway H. Frost, U. S. Navy

Evaluating the Reserves 32
Lieut. Col. H. A. Finch, Corps of Engineers

Bits and Bitting 35
Captain R. S. Ramey, 9th Cavalry

Foreign Views on Mechanization 39

Cloth Maps for Field Use 41
Brigadier General W. C. Brown, U. S. A., Retired

Events Overseas 43
Lieut. Col. Herman Beukema, Professor, U. S. Military Academy

National Guard Notes 47
Chief of the Militia Bureau's Rifle Team Match—Camp Inspections—Recruits at Training Camps—Volunteer Attendance at Army Service Schools—Damage Claims Incident to Field Training—Loss of Hired Animals.

Current Topics 50
A Correction—The Retiring Secretary-Treasurer-Editor—The Cavalry Rifle Team.

Professional Notes and Discussion 51
The Origin of the Hussars—The Conservation of Forage—Notes from the Cavalry Board.

Sports 53
Graduation Week, The Cavalry School—Cavalry School Horse Show and Race Meeting.

Organization Activities 55

Book Reviews 60

THE CAVALRY JOURNAL IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR OPINIONS EXPRESSED IN PUBLISHED CONTRIBUTIONS

Publishing Office:
Cameron and Kelker Sts.,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Editorial Office:
1624 H St., Washington, D. C.

Entered as second class matter at Harrisburg, Pa., January 22, 1931, under the Act of March 3, 1879. For mailing at Special Rate of Postage Provided in Section 412, Act of October 3, 1917.

$2.50 per year, foreign postage 50c additional. Single copy: 50c

Ever Been Lost With A Good Map In Your Hand?

RIDICULOUS?
YOU'D BE SURPRISED!

"More attacks fail from loss of direction than from any other cause." Infantry Drill Regulations (1918) of the A. E. F., Part 1, par. 395.

MAP RECONNAISSANCE

gives all the information you need to make or read a military map or to interpret an air photograph.

Its exposition of the subject is clear cut and easily understandable.

You supply the practice and

WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTORY RESULTS

PRICE

In Cloth - - - $1.60, Postpaid
In Flexible, Waterproof Leatherette - - $1.80, Postpaid

Your Name Stamped in Gold on Leatherette Binding, 35 cents a Copy (one line) or 50 cents (two lines).

The U. S. Cavalry Association
1624 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Announcing—

A New Edition of
Steele's

American Campaigns

The Standard American Military History

THIS military classic, recognized the world over as the best source for the study of American battles and campaigns, has been republished in a form worthy of its excellence.

Prepared originally for students of the Army Service Schools, the first edition was printed by authority of the War Department, has since become standard in our service, and is used at the General Service Schools, the Infantry School, other service schools, and at the U. S. Military Academy.

Specifically, every major campaign from the Colonial Wars of 1709 through the Spanish-American War is described in detail and analyzed for its lessons.

AMERICAN CAMPAIGNS has just been reprinted, with a new handsome library binding of black leatherette, stamped in gold. The two volumes—731 pages of text and 311 maps—will come to you boxed and prepaid.

Price $10.00 the set.

The U. S. Cavalry Association
1624 H Street, N. W. Washington, D. C.

The

Old Sergeant's Conferences

OUT of an experience of many "hitches" ranging from Jolo and the capture of Jikiri to St. Mihiel and Montfaucon, the Old Sergeant gives to the recruits his fund of soldier knowledge. To them he brings his sage advice and philosophy—how to get along in the Army—how the soldier's job compares with the civilian's—what an honorable discharge means—the necessity of military courtesy and discipline—and many other hints from the School of Experience.

An inspiration and compass for the recruit.
A helpful guide for non-com school.
A necessity in every Company Library.

ORDER YOUR COPY TODAY

Cloth binding - - $1.00
Leatherette binding - 1.50

The U. S. Cavalry Association
1624 H Street, N. W. Washington, D. C.

The CAVALRY JOURNAL

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY BY

THE UNITED STATES CAVALRY ASSOCIATION

LIEUTENANT COLONEL GEORGE M. RUSSELL, Cavalry, Editor

Volume XL | SEPTEMBER-OCTOBER, 1931 | Number 167

Publication Date: October 1, 1931.

Contents

Hourly Halt of Troops in the 1st Cavalry Maneuvers Near Lee's Ranch in the Sacramento Mountains of New Mexico ..... Frontispiece

R. O. T. C., the Key to National Defense 5
Major General Johnson Hagood, U. S. A.

Maneuvers of 1st Cavalry Division 10
Major Cuyler L. Clark, 82d F. A.

Cavalry and Mechanized Force 19
Brigadier General Hamilton S. Hawkins, U. S. A.

The Tactics of Bush Warfare 26
Major Roger W. Peard, U. S. M. C.

The Command Post Truck 34
Captain George A. Wiggam, 103d Cavalry, Pa. N. G.

Orientation of R. O. T. C. Freshmen 35
Colonel P. L. Miles, Infantry

DuPont Smokeless Powder Experimental Laboratory ... 38

Chasing the "Transvaal Wolf" 39
Lieut. Colonel William W. Edwards, Cavalry

Community Interest in National Guard 43
Colonel William H. Waldron, Infantry

International Horse Shows 46

Events Overseas 47
Lieut. Colonel Herman Beukema, Professor, U. S. Military Academy

The Foreign Military Press 51
Major Alexander L. P. Johnson, Infantry

Current Topics 53
The 1931 Cavalry Rifle and Pistol Teams.

A Treasure Hunt 54
A Stotsenburgian.

Professional Notes and Discussion 55
The Mechanized "Cavalry"—The Pumphrey Feed Box—Notes from the Cavalry Board—German Cavalry.

Organization Activities 58

Book Reviews 61

THE CAVALRY JOURNAL IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR OPINIONS EXPRESSED IN PUBLISHED CONTRIBUTIONS

Publishing Office:
Cameron and Kelker Sts.,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Editorial Office:
1624 H St., Washington, D. C.

Entered as second class matter at Harrisburg, Pa., January 22, 1931, under the Act of March 3, 1879. For mailing at Special Rate of Postage Provided in Section 412, Act of October 3, 1917.

Copyright, 1931, by the U. S. Cavalry Association.

$2.50 per year, foreign postage 50c additional. Single copy: 50c

★ OFFICIAL ★

Military Motor Transportation

1930 Edition

This text, prepared at the Coast Artillery School, is in use at the Coast and Field Artillery Schools, in the Regular Army and National Guard, and in most of the R.O.T.C. units.

It covers comprehensively all makes of motor transport used in the Army, and treats of all subjects necessary to a complete grasp of motors, their care, upkeep and use.

Price $1.50, Postpaid

The U. S. Cavalry Association

1624 H Street, N. W. Washington, D. C.

COMPANY EFFICIENCY WILL BE INCREASED

If The Old Sergeant is allowed to advise his charges. He tells the soldier how he can get along in the Army—the question that confronts every man.

THE OLD SERGEANT'S CONFERENCES

By Colonel William H. Waldron, U. S. A.

should be in the hands of every recruit, soldier and non-com. It will make them better, happier soldiers. It will increase the morale and standing of your unit.

In lots of 10 or more* — 75 Cents

The U. S. Cavalry Association

1624 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Ever Been Lost With A Good Map In Your Hand?

RIDICULOUS??

YOU'D BE SURPRISED!

"More attacks fail from loss of direction than from any other cause." Infantry Drill Regulations (1918) of the A. E. F., Part 1, par. 395.

MAP RECONNAISSANCE

gives all the information you need to make or read a military map or to interpret an air photograph.

Its exposition of the subject is clear cut and easily understandable.

Supply plenty of the practice and you can be assured of

SATISFACTORY RESULTS

PRICE

In Cloth - - - $1.60, Postpaid

In Flexible, Waterproof Leatherette - - $1.80, Postpaid

Your Name Stamped in Gold on Leatherette Binding, 35 cents a Copy (one line) or 50 cents (two lines).

DISCOUNT FOR QUANTITY PURCHASES

The U. S. Cavalry Association

1624 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

The CAVALRY JOURNAL

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY BY

THE UNITED STATES CAVALRY ASSOCIATION

COLONEL GEORGE M. RUSSELL, Cavalry, Editor

Volume XL NOVEMBER-DECEMBER, 1931 Number 168

Publication Date: December 1, 1931

Contents

Greetings from the Chief of Cavalry

Army Equestrian Teams in Past Olympic Games 5
Major William M. Grimes, Cavalry

Some Random Observations 13
Lieut. Colonel Charles Burnett, 3d Cavalry

The Yorktown Sesquicentennial Celebration 15
2d Lieut. John R. Lovell, C. A. C.

The Effect of Mechanization Upon Cavalry 21
Major John B. Smith, 57th Cavalry Brigade, Kansas National Guard.

War Policies 25
Major Dwight D. Eisenhower, Infantry

The McClellan Saddle and Its Proposed Modifications .. 30
Lieut. Colonel Edgar M. Whiting, Cavalry

Use of Pack by Other than Members of Rifle Platoon ... 33
Captain Gyles Merrill, Cavalry

Antiaircraft Tactics for Moving Columns 35
2d Lieut. Frank D. Ostenberg, C. A. C.

October Eighth at Aberdeen 40

Current Topics 42
Letter from the Chief of Cavalry to the Members of the U. S. Cavalry Association—Nice International Horseshow—National Guard Preparation for Service School—Annual Meeting of the U. S. Cavalry Association

Events Overseas 43
Lieut. Col. Herman Beukema, Professor, U. S. Military Academy

Book Reviews 46

Colonel Willis V. Morris 46

The Foreign Military Press 47
Major Alexander L. P. Johnson, Infantry

Sports 49
American Team's Success in International Horseshow Events—1st Cavalry Division Horseshow—11th Cavalry Polo—Fort Des Moines Horseshow—American Royal Horseshow, Kansas City, Mo.

Professional Notes and Discussion 53
Mechanized Cavalry—"The Cavalry", from French Revue de Cavalerie—Notes from the Cavalry Board.

Organization Activities 58

THE CAVALRY JOURNAL IS NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR OPINIONS EXPRESSED IN PUBLISHED CONTRIBUTIONS

Publishing Office:
Cameron and Kelker Sts.,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Editorial Office:
1624 H St., Washington, D. C.

Entered as second class matter at Harrisburg, Pa., January 22, 1931, under the Act of March 3, 1879. For mailing at Special Rate of Postage Provided in Section 412, Act of October 3, 1917.

Copyright, 1931, by the U. S. Cavalry Association.

$2.50 per year, foreign postage 50c additional. Single copy: 50c

Horse Training

Outdoor and High School

by E. Beudant,

Ex-Capt. French Cavalry

Translated with an introduction

by Lieut.-Col. John A. Barry,

U. S. Cavalry

With 35 illustrations from photographs $3.00

This book, by an author renowned in the French Cavalry, concentrates on the salient points of training, applying a few simple old principles generally known but little practised. There are no fantastic theories. The author explains his method and proves it by results—his horses.

An Introduction to Polo

by "Marco"

With a foreword by Lord Wodehouse, 18 full-page plates of 6 "slow-motion" photographs each, demonstrating various strokes played by Lord Wodehouse and Winston Guest; and other illustrations $6.00

"Marco has given the game its most valuable text."—STUART ROSE in the New York Herald Tribune.

The Art of Riding

A Text-Book for Beginners and Others

by Lieut.-Col. M. F. McTaggart

With 73 illustrations from photographs and several diagrams $3.50

An internationally recognized authority here writes upon the care and training of horses, stables, harness, etc. "It contains a surprising amount of information."—London Times.

In My Opinion

edited by

Major W. E. Lyon

A galaxy of experts discusses all phases of equitation and the care of horses.

Second Edition. Illustrated $7.50

The U.S. Cavalry Association

1624 H Street, N. W. Washington, D. C.

Announcing—

A New Edition of
Steele's

American Campaigns

The Standard American
Military History

THIS military classic, recognized the world over as the best source for the study of American battles and campaigns, has been republished in a form worthy of its excellence.

Prepared originally for students of the Army Service Schools, the first edition was printed by authority of the War Department, has since become standard in our service, and is used at the General Service Schools, the Infantry School, other service schools, and at the U. S. Military Academy.

Specifically, every major campaign from the Colonial Wars of 1709 through the Spanish-American War is described in detail and analyzed for its lessons.

AMERICAN CAMPAIGNS has just been reprinted, with a new handsome library binding of black leatherette, stamped in gold. The two volumes—731 pages of text and 311 maps—will come to you boxed and prepaid.

Price $10.00 the set.

The U. S. Cavalry Association

1624 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Strategy

The Culmination of Military Art

* * *

A DISTINGUISHED corps commander stated, "Strategy is a subject appropriate to all grades. It possesses endless appeals to thoughtful speculation, its possibilities for study are inexhaustible. There is no more effective way to acquire sound judgment and logical reasoning than a mastery of the enduring elements of strategy."

* * *

Fundamentals of Military Strategy

By Colonel Oliver P. Robinson, U. S. A.

discusses strategy from the viewpoint of the nine Principles of War and of War Planning. A valuable and interesting development is the illustration of all important points by historical examples.

Price $3.00, Postpaid

The U. S. Cavalry Association

1624 H Street, N. W. Washington, D. C.

BASIC CAVALRY MANUAL

Copiously Illustrated

A HANDBOOK OF BASIC CAVALRY TACTICS and TECHNIQUE

Contents

FOREWORD BY THE CHIEF OF CAVALRY

National Defense and the Educated Man.
National Defense Act and the R.O.T.C.
Military Courtesy and Discipline.
Military Hygiene and First Aid.
Physical Training.
Rifle Marksmanship.
Cavalry Drill.
Equitation.
Cavalry Weapons.
Scouting and Patrolling.
Musketry.
Tactical Employment of Small Cavalry Units.

The Chief of Cavalry says:

"I am pleased to record my endorsement of this book."

What some other Cavalry Leaders say of it:

"Will be of great assistance to the students and instructors engaged in studying the Tactics and Technique of Cavalry, as well as the basic duties of the Cavalry Soldier."

"It seems concise, well illustrated, and prodigious in scope. I consider it a most valuable addition to a Cavalryman's library."

"I would like to see all National Guard non-commissioned officers have one."

"Should be a part of every officer's library, especially every officer of the Cavalry Reserve Corps."

"There is a crying need for such a book."

"Has long been needed."

Price $4.50 Postpaid

Orders over 10 copies
25% Discount f. o. b. Harrisburg

THE U. S. CAVALRY ASSOCIATION

1624 H STREET, N. W., WASHINGTON, D. C.

The United States Cavalry Association

Organized November 9, 1885

DESIGN

1. The aim and purpose of the Association shall be to disseminate knowledge of the military art and science, to promote the professional improvement of its members, and to preserve and foster the spirit, the traditions, and the solidarity of the Cavalry of the Army of the United States.—Article III of the Constitution.

OFFICERS

President

MAJOR GENERAL GUY V. HENRY

Vice-President

Secretary and Treasurer

MAJOR O. L. HAINES, Cavalry

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Colonel LEON B. KROMER, Cavalry
Colonel GEORGE B. COMLY, Cavalry
Colonel W. I. FORBES, 305th Cavalry
Colonel HOBART B. BROWN, 302d Cavalry
Lt. Col. JOHN HERR, Cavalry
Lt. Col. J. W. CONVERSE, 103d Cavalry
Lt. Col. A. W. HOLDERNESS, Cavalry

MEMBERSHIP

Membership shall be of three classes, which, together with the conditions of eligibility therefor, are as follows:

(1) Active, for which all general officers of the Army of the United States and all commissioned officers of the Cavalry of the Army of the United States shall be eligible.

(2) Associate, for which all present and former commissioned, warrant, and non-commissioned officers of honorable record of the military or naval services of the United States not included in class I shall be eligible.

(3) Honorary.

Application for membership, showing present or former military status, should be addressed to the Secretary, U. S. Cavalry Association, 1624 H Street, N. W., Washington, D. C., and be accompanied by remittance of dues for one year.

DUES AND SUBSCRIPTION TO THE CAVALRY JOURNAL

There is no initiation fee. Annual dues, payable in advance, $2.50, which includes subscription to the Cavalry Journal, 60% thereof being so designated.

Any person or organization not eligible for membership may subscribe for the JOURNAL at the regular subscription rates of $2.50 per year. Canadian and foreign postage, 25 cents additional.

Members and subscribers are requested to give prompt notice in advance of change of address. Changes in address are made only on notification.